PREFACE

Since the publication of West Bengal Services (Death-cum-Retirement Benefits) Rules. 71 in early seventies, we have received several requests demanding a copy of the same. The Finance Deptt. felt the need of publication of the book incorporating the changes made in the Rule from time to time. This Volume is the re-print of the previous one with necessary foot notes in regard to circulars those have been issued in connection with relevant rules.

It is expected that, this will be useful in dealing with the Pension cases of the Government employees under different Departments.

(d) When a public servant holds some other pensionable office, he earns no pension in respect of an office of the kind mentioned in clause © or in respect of duties paid for by a local allowance;

Compiler's Note : *In sanctioning provisional pension under rule 10(2) report on the admissibility of pension required to be obtained from the AGWB. Vide F.D. Memo. No. 691-F dated 30.01.81

(e) When an officer serves under an agreement which contains no stipulation regarding pension, unless the Government authorizes an officer to count such service towards pension.

(f) When an officer is admitted to Government contributory provident Scheme, unless he forgoes the employer's contribution (including interest) with the approval of Governor.

12. Misconduct or inefficiency – No pension may be granted to an officer dismissed or removed for misconduct, insolvency or inefficiency; but to officers so dismissed or removed compassionate allowance may be granted when they are deserving of special consideration; provided that the allowance granted to any officer shall not exceed two-third of the pension which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on medical certificate.

Note –1 Rules 9 and 10 apply mutatis mutandis to the recovery of Government dues from compassionate allowance.

Note – 2 On receipt of the orders of the competent authority removing an officer from service for misconduct, insolvency or inefficiency, the Head of office if he proposes to recommend the grant of compassionate allowance, should fill in the first page of application for pension in Form 1 or the first and second pages of Form 2 as the case may be, and send to the Audit Officer concerned for report on the title to pension. The Head of Office should not wait for an application in Form 2 signed by the officer.

If the competent authority in passing orders of removal states that a certain proportion of the invalid pension is to be granted as compassionate allowance, no further sanction to pension is necessary, and all that is required that the Audit Officer should certify to the admissibility of the pension on a pension application completed and signed by the Head of Office as mentioned above.

Note – 3 The above rule vests the competent authority with an absolute discretion to grant or not to grant any compassionate allowance, the only restriction being that if granted it shall not exceed the maximum of two-thirds of the pension that would be admissible to the officer concerned on retirement on medical certificate. Each case has, therefore, to be considered on its merits and a conclusion has to be reached on the question whether there are any such extenuating feature in the cases as would make the punishment awarded, though it may have been necessary in the interest of Government, unduly hard on the individual. In considering this question it may be necessary to take into account only the actual misconduct or course of misconduct which occasioned the dismissal or removal of the officer but also the kind of service he has rendered. Poverty is not an essential condition precedent to the grant of a compassionate allowance but special regard is also occasionally paid to the fact that the officer may have a wife and children dependent upon him though the fact by itself is not, except perhaps in most exceptional circumstances, sufficient for the grant of a compassionate allowance.

#13. Pension in case of compulsory retirement as a penalty.–An officer compulsorily retired from service as a penalty may be granted by an authority competent to impose such penalty may be granted by an authority competent to impose such penalty, pension at a rate not less than two-thirds and not more than full invalid pension and special additional pension, if any, admissible to him on the date of his compulsory retirement.

Compiler's Note : #597-F (Pen) Dt. 1.8.05 (It is clarified that in terms of the provision contemplated under Rule 13 of WBS (DCRB) Rules, 71 a Govt employee who retires compulsory from service as penalty may be granted pension and gratuity not less than 2/3 and not more than full invalid pension and gratuity if any, admissible to him on the date of compulsory retirement. Further more the pension granted under this rule is commutable after medical examination.

■* 14 Criminal proceedings—A Government servant who retires from service but against whom criminal proceeding involving moral turpitude are pending in a court of law, shall not be sanctioned any pension until the termination of the criminal proceedings. An interim allowance not exceeding two-thirds of the pension that granted during the pendency of such proceedings in cases of hardship. If he is convicted on a criminal charge involving moral turpitude he shall not be entitled to any pension; compassionate allowance may be granted subject to the same terms and conditions as laid down in rule 12

15. Family pension—In case of death of a Government servant who in service or after retirement, if the deceased officer was entitle to, or was in receipt of, as the case may be, of a compensation, invalid, retiring or superannuation pension, the family of the deceased Government servant shall be entitled to a gratuity and/or pension as provided in Chapter X of this rule.

16. Limitations— An officer cannot earn two pensions in the same office at the same time or by the same continuous service. Two officers may not simultaneously count service in respect of the same office.

32. Period of suspension-The period passed under suspension pending enquiry into conduct counts in full where, on conclusion of the enquiry, the Government servant has been fully exonerated or the suspension is held to have been wholly unjustified; in other cases the period of suspension does not count unless the authority competent to pass order under rule 72 of West Bengal Service Rules, Part I expressly declares at the time that it shall be treated as duty.

(2) Resignation of an appointment to take up, with proper permission another appointment, whether permanent to temporary, service in which counts in full or in part, is not a resignation of public service :

Compiler's Note : *This rule has been inserted under F.D. Notification No.1950-F dated 21.2.83 Position of rule 28A has been clarified vide F.D. Memo. No. 8287-F dated 23.7.84. (Page 71 of the Hand Book)

Provided that a Government servant who resigns his appointment to take up another appointment under Government with higher initial pay as an outsider in terms of paragraph 4 (b) of the Government of West Bengal, Finance Department G.O. No. 3556-F dated 7.7.64, shall not be entitled to the benefit of this clause.

34. Subsequent reinstatement-(1) A Government servant, who is dismissed, removed or compulsorily retired from public service but is reinstated on appeal or revision is entitled to count his past service.

(2) The competent authority may commute retrospectively the period of absence without leave into extraordinary leave without pay and allowance.

(3) Upon such conditions as it may think fit in each case to impose the competent authority may condone interruptions in service

In other cases power should be restricted to Government servant drawing pay not exceeding Rs. 425/- per month at the time of retirement on invalid or compensation pension.

Chapter V

CONDITIONS OF GRANT OF PENSION

37. Classification of pensions–Pensions are divided into the following four classes, namely :

- (a) compensation pension;
- (b) invalid pension;
- (c) superannuation pension ; and
- (d) retiring pension

Compiler's Note : a new class of pension named as 'pro-rata pension has since beer added under rule 189A as inserted by F.D. Notification No.2567-F dated 30.3.76

Compensation Pension

38. Option in case of abolition of permanent post. If an officer is selected for discharge owing to the abolition of permanent post, he shall, unless he is appointed to another post the conditions of which are deemed by the authority competent to discharge him to be at least equal to those of his own, have the option–

- (a) of taking any compensation pension or gratuity to which he may be entitled for service he has rendered; or
- (b) of acceptance another appointment of transfer to another establishment even on a lower pay, if offered, and continuing to count his previous service for pension.

Note – It is to be noted that the abolition of a post does not automatically involve discharge of the incumbent of the post. The competent authority has to be satisfied after making a reference to Government where necessary, that the officer cannot be appointed to another post the conditions of which are deemed by the authority competent to discharge him to be at least equal to those of his own.

39. Selection for discharge. The selection of the officers to be discharged upon the abolition of a post should prima facie be so made that the least charge for compensation pension will be incurred.

Note : Where an establishment or cadre consisting of permanent and temporary posts are manned by permanent Government servants, Government servants with permanent status, quasi-permanent Government servants and temporary Government servants, termination of service on the abolition of any post shall ordinarily take place in the following order namely :

- (a) temporary Government servants ;
- (b) quasi-permanent Government servants;
- (c) Government servants with permanent status;
- (d) Permanent Government servants.

40. Discharge of an officer.–The discharge of one officer to make room for another better qualified is not the abolition of an appointment within the meaning of rule 38. The abolition must produce a real saving to Government. Particulars of the saving effected should be fully set forth in every application for compensation pension. The saving should always exceed the cost of the pension; otherwise it may be better to postpone the reduction of establishment or abolition of appointment.

41. Officers not entitled to compensation pension.–An officer who is a member of a service specified in Appendix 9 of West Bengal Service Rules, Part I (Other than the West Bengal General Service) Cannot obtain a compensation pension on the abolition of a particular appointment.

42. Loss of appointment after completion of a specified term of service.– No pension is admissible to an officer for the loss of an appointment on discharge after the completion of a specified term of service.

43. Loss of any special pay or local allowance–No pension may be awarded for the loss of any special pay or local allowance.

44. Discharge of an officer in consequence of a change in the nature of duties of office. If it is necessary to discharge an officer in consequence of a change in the nature of duties of his office the case should be referred to the Government who will deal with it in accordance with the rules laid down in this chapter as to notice of discharge and compensation pension or gratuity.

45. Abolition of one of two appointments held by one officer. If of two appointment held by one officer only one is abolished and it is desired to give him an immediate pension in respect of the abolished post the case should be referred to Government for orders.

46. Notice of discharge – Reasonable notice, not less than three months, should be given to an officer in permanent employ before his service is dispensed with on the abolition of the office. If, in any case, notice of at least three months is not given and the officer has not been provided with any other employment on the date on which his services are dispensed with.

Then, with the sanction of the authority competent to dispense with the officer's services, a gratuity not exceeding his emoluments for period by which the notice actually given- to him falls short of months, may be paid to him in addition to the pension to which he may be entitled under rule 67 but the pension shall not be payable for the period in respect of which he receives a gratuity in lieu of notice.

Note – The gratuity prescribed in this rule is not granted as compensation for loss of employment but only in lieu of notice of discharge. When, therefore, an officer discharged without notice is provided with some other employment on the date on which his services are dispensed with, whether that employment to be in qualifying or non-qualifying service, he is not entitled to any gratuity. “Emoluments” in this rule means the emoluments or leave allowances (partly the one and partly the other) which the officer would be receiving during the period in question had the notice not been given to him.

47. Acceptance of new appointment.— If an officer who is entitled to compensation pension accepts instead another appointment in the public service and subsequently becomes again entitled to receive a pension of any class, the amount of such pension shall not be less than he could have claimed if he had not accepted the appointment.

Invalid Pension

48. Invalid pension when awarded.- An invalid pension is awarded, on his retirement from public service, to an officer who by bodily or mental infirmity is permanently incapacitated for public service, or for the particular branch of it to which he belongs.

49. Medical Certificate-(1) An officer applying for an invalid pension shall submit a medical certificate of incapacity from a medical authority.

(2) The medical authority referred to in sub-rule (1) shall be –

(i) in the case of all gazetted Government servants and those non-gazette Government servants whose pay as defined in clause (28) of rule 5 of the West Bengal Service rules, Part I exceeds Rs.500 per month, a Medical Board;

(ii) in other case, the Chief Medical Officer of the district or a medical officer of equivalent status.

(3) No medical certificate of incapacity for service may be granted unless the applicant appears through the Head of Office or in case of a gazette officer through the Head of the Department. The Medical Officer shall be supplied by the Head of the Office or department in which the applicant is employed with a statement of what appears from the official records to be the applicant’s age.

50. Statement of the medical case.— (1) A succinct statement of the medical case, and of the treatment adopted, should, if possible, be appended.

(2) If the medical authority, although unable to discover any specific disease in the officer, considers him incapacitated for further service by general debility while still under the age of fifty-five years, he should give detailed reasons for his opinion, and, if possible, a second medical opinion should also in such a case be obtained.

(3) In a case of this kind, special explanation will be expected from the head of the office or department of the grounds on which it is proposed to invalid the officer.

51. Inefficiency due to old age or natural decay. A simple certificate that inefficiency is due to old age or natural decay from advancing years is not sufficient in the case of an officer whose recorded age is less than fifty-five years, but the medical authority is at liberty, when certifying that the officer is incapacitated for further service by general debility, to state his reasons for believing the age to be understated.

Note. Senile cataract, arterial changes consequent on senile decay, general nervous-breakdown and commencing cataract may be treated as specific diseases as they may come before a man reaches the 55th year of his age.

52. Form of medical certificate (1) the form of medical certificate to be given respecting an officer applying for pension in India is as follows :-

“Certified that I (We) have carefully examined A.B. son of C.D. a _____ in the _____. His age is by his own statement _____ years, and by his appearance about _____ years. I (We) consider A.B., to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of (here state disease or cause). His incapacity does not appear to me (us) to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.”

Note : If the incapacity is the result of irregular or intemperate habits the following will be substituted for the sentence.

“In my/our opinion his incapacity is directly due to _____ has been accelerated or aggravated by _____ irregular or intemperate habits.”

If the incapacity does not appear to be complete and permanent, the certificate should be modified accordingly and the following addition should be made.

“ I am/we are of opinion that A.B., is fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing (or may, after resting for _____ months, be fit for further service of a less laborious character than that which he has been doing).”

(2) The object of the alternative certificate (of incapacity) is that an officer should, if possible, be employed even on lower pay, so that the expense of pensioning him may be avoided. If that be no means of employing him even on lower pay, then he may be admitted to pension; but it should be considered whether in view of his capacity for partially earning a living, it is necessary to grant to him the full pension admissible under rule.

53. Examination by medical authority—The medical authority should be specially searching in their examination of the physical unfitness of every applicant for pension, and, however large may be the number of applicants for pensions the examination should, if possible, be conducted by the medical officers.

54. Officer discharged on other ground.—An officer discharged on other grounds has no claim under rule 48 even though he can produce medical evidence of incapacity for service.

55. Incapacity due to irregular or intemperate habits.—If the incapacity is directly due to irregular or intemperate habits, no pension can be granted. If it has not been directly caused by such habits but has been accelerated or aggravated by them, it will be for the authority by which the pension is grantable to decide what reduction should be made on this account.

Note 1—The mere fact that an officer has suffered from syphilis taken by itself is not sufficient to bring him under the operation of this rule.

Note 2–Unsoundness of mind caused by drug habits is a sufficient cause for invaliding an officer.

Note 3–The expression “irregular or intemperate habits” occurring in this rule refers to incapacity on account of drug habit or on account of diseases resulting from immoral habits. Cases where incapacity occurs due to other causes, e.g. work at irregular hours due to exigencies of service and not due to its own volition do not come under the purview of this rule.

56. Officer submitting medical certificate under rule 49 to be discharged.–(1) An officer who has submitted under rule 49 a medical certificate of incapacity for further service shall, if he is on duty, be invalided from service from the date of relief of his duty, which should be arranged without delay on receipt of the medical certificate. If he is on leave other than leave not due at the time of submission of the medical certificate he, should, except as provided in sub-rule (2), be invalided from the service on the expiration of the leave already granted to him. If he is on leave not due, his date of retirement should take effect from the date of the medical report.

(2) A Government servant declared by the competent medical authority to be completely and permanently incapacitated may, in special cases, be granted leave, or an extension of leave not exceeding six months as debited against the leave account, if such leave be due to him. Special circumstances justifying such treatment may be held to exist when the Government servant’s break-down in health has been caused in and by Government service, or when the Government servant has taken a comparatively small amount of leave during his service or will complete at an early date an additional six months’ service for pension.

Superannuation Pension

57. When superannuation pension is granted.–A superannuation pension is granted to an officer entitled or compelled under rules prescribed in chapter X of West Bengal Service Rules, Part-I, to retire at a particular age.

Note–If only the year of birth of an applicant for pension is known but the exact date of birth in that year is not known, the first of July of that year is taken to be the date of birth. Similarly, if only the month and the year of birth are known, the 16th of the month is taken to be the exact date of birth.

Retiring Pension

*58. Retiring pension when granted.- A retiring pension is granted to an officer who is permitted to retire after completing qualifying service for 30 years or such less time as may for any special class of officers be prescribed.

- 1) West Bengal Higher Agricultural Service;
- 2) West Bengal Agricultural Service;
- 3) West Bengal Higher Veterinary Service;

Compiler 's Note : *For state Government employees other than though mentioned in rule 59 a Scheme of Voluntary Retirement has been introduced under which one is permitted to retire after completing not less than 20 years' qualifying service. For details - see F.D.Memo.No.6620-F dated 20.8.81.

**In terms of para' 14 of F.D. Memo.N'o.6620-F dated 20.6,81, rule 60 (1) shall be deemed to have been amended to the extent of the said Memo.

61. Accountant-General to be consulted. – The Accountant-General, West Bengal, should invariably be consulted before a Government servant is permitted to retire on retiring pension to ensure that the officer has rendered the minimum period of service qualifying for retiring pension.

Note– In some cases officers were allowed to retire from service and it was subsequently found by the Audit Officer that owing to the peculiar conditions of a portion of their service or to some other reason, they had not completed the minimum period of qualifying service necessary to enable them to draw the retiring pension to which they believed they were entitled when they were permitted to retire.

CHAPTER VI AMOUNT OF PENSIONS

*62. Amount of pension is determined by length of service—The amount of pension that may be granted is determined by the length service as set forth in the rules 67-69. Fractions of a year are taken into account in the calculation of any pension admissible to an officer provided that in case of Government servants in the West Bengal State Service Class IV and in respect of other officers retiring from service on or after 7th June 1966 who have not opted to remain under the Pension Rules issued under Finance Department Notification No.2222/F/F/1P-1 (10)/52 dated 11th August 1952, or under the existing rules of the Civil Service Regulations, fractions of year equal to six months and above shall be treated as a completed six monthly period for the purpose of calculation of any pension admissible under these rules.

Note.- In calculating the length of service and adding together broken periods of a month, a month should be taken to consist of 30 days.

**63. Fractions to be rounded off.- The amount of pension payable monthly shall be expressed in whole rupees and where the pension calculated according to these rules contains a fraction of a rupee it shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee provided that the maximum annual pension prescribed in rule 67 shall not be increased thereby.

64. Pension fixed in rupees.— A pension is fixed in rupees and not in other currency even though it is to be paid in countries outside India.

65. Award of full pension.— (1) The full pension admissible under the rules is not to be given as a matter of course or unless the service rendered has really been approved.

(2) If the service has not been thoroughly satisfactory, the authority sanctioning the pension should make such reduction in the amount as it thinks proper :

Compiler's Note : *At present, fraction of a year equal to three months and above is treated as six monthly period of service period below three months is ignored vide F, D.Memo.No.,14971 dated 16.12.83.

**w.e.f. 1.1.88 maximum amount of monthly pension has been fixed at Rs.3650/- vide F.D. Memo.No.4055-F dated 25.4.90

Maximum amount of monthly pension has been fixed at Rs. 11200/- w.e.f. 1.1.96 normally from 1.4.98 vide F.D. Memo No 1127 (Pen) dt. 27.10.98

Maximum amount of monthly pension has been fixed at Rs. 35000 w.e.f 1.1.96 notionally and actually from 1.4.08 vide F.D.Memo No. 201-F (Pen) dt. 25.2.09

Provided that in cases where the authority sanctioning pension is other than the appointing authority, no order regarding reduction in the amount of pension shall be made without the approval of the appointing authority.

Provided that in cases where the authority sanctioning pension is other than the appointing authority, no order regarding reduction in the amount of pension shall be made without the approval of the appointing authority.

[Provided further that the pension sanctioning authority before passing any final order regarding reduction in the account of pension or gratuity, or both, shall serve upon the person concerned a notice specifying the reduction proposed to be made in such amount and the grounds therefor, and call upon such person to submit, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice or such further time as may be allowed by that authority, such representation as such person may wish to make against the proposed reduction and take into consideration the representation, if any, submitted by such person before passing the final order.]

Compiler's Note : [ ] inserted by amendment under F.D.Notification No,2562-F dated 30.3.76

Note 1.- No pension shall be liable to seizure, attachment or sequestration by process of court in India at the instance of the creditor for any demand against the pensioner, [Section of the Pensions Act (Act XXIII of 1871)].

Note 2.- The Public Service Commission, West Bengal, shall be consulted whenever it is proposed to pass an order awarding pension including an additional pension, less than the maximum admissible under these rules to any Government servant who was a member of the West Bengal State Services, Class I or class II before retirement. Whenever an order reducing the pension of an officer is passed, the officer affected shall have a right to appeal to the authority to whom an appeal for an order of dismissal or removal lies.

Note 3.— (a) This rule cannot be used directly to effect a penal recovery, but Government are justified in making proof of a specific instance of fraud or negligence by an officer, the ground for a finding that his service has not been thoroughly satisfactory within the meaning of this rule for the purpose of reducing his pension.

(b) The measure of the reduction in the amount of pension made under this rule should be the extent by which the officer's service as a whole has failed to reach a thoroughly satisfactory standard, and any attempt to equate the amount of reduction with the amount of loss caused to Government is incorrect.

(c) The rule contemplates permanent reduction in the amount of pension ordinarily admissible and does not admit of the reduction of the pension payable in respect of any one particular year.

Note 4.— The question whether in the departmental enquiry an officer charged with corruption should be presumed to be guilty of that charge - in case he is unable to satisfactorily account for possession by himself or by any other person on his behalf, e.g. dependants, of pecuniary resources of property disproportionate to his known sources of income was under examination. It is considered that a presumption of corruption fairly and reasonably arises against an officer who cannot account for large accretion of wealth which he could not possibly have saved from his known sources of income. Such a principle has received statutory recognition in section 5(3) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947 and it is considered that its application in a departmental enquiry would not be unjust or inequitable. Accordingly, it has been decided that if an officer against whom a departmental enquiry is held is unable to explain satisfactorily the large wealth amassed by him the officer holding the enquiry is entitled to act on the presumption that such wealth was amassed by corrupt means.

The service of an officer against whom such a charge of corruption has been proved whether in a specific case or by the presumption stated above cannot be considered to be thoroughly satisfactory within the meaning of this rule. Any action under this rule should, however, be taken only after a charge of corruption has been proved in the above manner in all formal departmental enquiry.

66. An officer entitled to pension may not take a gratuity instead of pension.

67. Amount of pension,- The amount of pension is regulated as follows :

Compiler's Note : The rates of pension, gratuity, length of maximum qualifying service, ceiling of emolument and also ceiling of pension, gratuity etc. as provided in rule 67 have undergone several changes from time to time as a measure of liberalism effected by issue of executive orders from Finance Deptt.

The present position of the rates of pension gratuity etc. shown below indicating the chronological changes thereof to facilitate easy reference :

A. (i) The maximum qualifying service for earning pension in terms of rule 67 (B) (i) has been enhanced from 60 completed six monthly periods to 66 completed six-monthly periods (effect 1.4.74, vide Memo.No.5225-F dated 7.6.76)

(ii) For gratuity, the maximum limit of 15 times emolument as prescribed in Part II of rule 67 has been raised to 16<sup>1/2</sup> times the emoluments. Monetary ceiling for gratuity also raised to Rs.30,000 (effect 1.4.74, vide Memo.No.5225-F dated 7.6.76)

(iii) Ceiling of emoluments for the purpose of pension and gratuity has been raised from Rs.1,800 to Rs.2,500 per month (effect 1.4.74, vide Memo.No.5225-F dated 7.6.76).

B . With effect from 1.4.78, a new formula called "slab system was introduced for calculation of pension (vide Memo. No.8390-F dated 13,9.80) :

	Amount of monthly Pension
(i) Upto first Rs.1000/- of the average amount reckonable for pension.	50% of the amount
Next Rs, 500/- of the average amount	45% of the amount
Balance of the average amount	40% of the amount

(ii) The amount of pension arrived at on the basis of above slab-system is available for a qualifying service not less than 33 years. For a qualifying service less than 33 years but not less than 10 years—amount of pension will be proportionate to what is admissible for a qualifying service of 33 years. The formula is

$$P = \frac{A \times L}{33}$$

[P = Pension, A = amount of pension arrived at on the basis of slab-system; and, L=length of qualifying service]

(iii) Ceiling of monthly pension inclusive of ad-hoc increases – Rs. 1500/- w.e.f 1.4.78

(iv) Instead of average amount, last drawn amount is reckoned w.e.f. 30.9.81

C. Monetary ceiling of gratuity raised from Rs. 30000 to Rs. 36,000/- (effect-1.8.82, vide Memo. No. 9777-F dated 8.9.82)

D.(i) Ceiling of gratuity, again, raised from Rs. 36,000 to Rs. 50,000/- and ceiling on emolument for gratuity raised from Rs 2,500 to Rs. 4,000/- p.m. (effect 31.3.85 vide Memo. No. 2436-F dated 7.3.86).

(ii) Ceiling on maximum amount of pension abolished for employees retiring on or after 31.3.85 vide No. 2436 dated 7.3.86)

E. (i) Gratuity-Ceiling, again, raised from Rs. 50,000 to Rs. 75,000/- (effect-1.1.86, vide Memo. No. 7530-F dated 6.7.88)

(ii) Minimum pension and maximum pension fixed at Rs. 375/- p.m. and rs. 2675 p.m. respectively (effect-1.1.86, vide Memo No 7530-F dated 6.7.88)

(iii) Ceiling on amount reckonable for pension and gratuity abolished (effect – 1.1.86, vide Memo. No. 7530-F dt. 6.7.88)

(iv) Pension shall be calculated at 50 per cent instead of slab system as shown at B (i) (effect-1.1.86, No. 7530-F date 6.7.88)

F. Consequent upon revision of pay under the WBS (ROPA) Rules '90 which took effect on 1.1.86 following changes have been made

In this connection see chief Secretary's Circulars Nos.1500-F (Pen) dt;13.10,93 & N:.165-F (Pen) dt.10.11.93.

**At present, top system of classifying Govt. employees into 'gazetted' and 'non-gazetted' has been done away with.

The work relating to maintenance of service-book and determination of personal entitlement in respect of erstwhile gazetted Govt employees has since been transferred from the A..G.W.B. to Depts. concerned. As such, Heads of Offices being pension sanctioning authorities in respect of Govt. employees (irrespective of class of employees) Govt. employees due to retire will submit application in Form 5 to the head of office.

Note 1.- In each department and office an officer of appropriate rank should be specifically charged with the responsibility of initiating action in due time regarding the completion of pension records and documents. As the first step in that direction he should have a list prepared every six months, i.e., on the 1st January and 1st July, of all officers, gazetted or non-gazeted, who will attain the age of superannuation within the next 12 to 18 months of that date. The attention of every such Government servant should be drawn to the provisions of rule 125 to 129 and he should be advised to make a formal application for pension at least one year in advance from the date of his anticipated retirement in order to avoid the possibility of any delay in the commencement of his pension. A copy of the list referred to should also be sent to the Accountant-General, West Bengal.

Compiler's Note : It has been decided all pension sanctioning authorities will prepare the list every six months i.e. on the 1st January and 1st July each year of all Govt. employees who are due to retire within the next 24/30 month's from the date of preparation of such list and send such list to the Accountant General, West Bengal not later than 31st January or the 31st July, as the case may be, of that year (vide Memo.No.6388-F dt.24.6.86 and No.4521-F dt.2.5.87)

Note 2.- Check lists to ensure that all necessary steps involved in the finalisation of pension cases are taken well in time and simultaneously a pro-forma called "Check List" and a form of "Progress Statement" as shown in Annexure II and III should be prepared, As soon as the list referred to in Note I has been prepared or an intimation is received about the death of a Government servant, the "Check List" should be started for each such case and information and documents already available checked up with the proforma item by item. A note of the items in respect of which complete information is not available should be made in column 1 of the "Progress Statement" and necessary steps initiated simultaneously to collect the missing information or to complete necessary formalities. A watch on the finalisation should be kept by noting the progress made in column 2 of the "Progress Statement" at weekly or other suitable intervals.

Note 3.- Instructions regarding annual verification as laid down in rule 42 of Appendix 7 of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part – I should be carefully observed to avoid delay in verification service.

Compiler's Note : In cases where the service book is maintained properly, the requirement of annual verification of service may be dispensed "with, vide Govt. decision in para 2(i) of F.D.Memo.No.2255-F dt.22.3.73.

Note 4.- Rule 134 lays down that the preparation of the service statement and its verification by the Accountant-General, West Bengal, shall be taken up one year before an officer is due to retire. Note 5.- If a Government servant who is officiating in a higher post or is holding a higher temporary post and continues to do so for more than two years up to the date of his retirement takes any leave during the last three years of his service the question whether he would have continued to hold the higher post if he had not proceeded on leave should be examined and necessary certificate should be recorded by the sanctioning authority at the time of the grant of leave. Such certificates should always accompany the pension papers.

Note 6.- The service books of permanent non-gazetted Government servants who are officiating as gazetted officers are often found incomplete at the time of their retirement. Under the rules the service of such a Government servant should remain in the custody of the Head of Office in which he holds a permanent and substantive non-gazetted post and entries should continue to be made by that officer regularly about any changes in pay, ect., which would have accrued to him had he continued to hold his permanent post and entry about the date of transfer to the gazetted post will also be made in red ink at an appropriate place across the pages and another similar entry about his reversion from gazetted post where it takes place. A full record of service in the gazetted post itself will be kept and verification done by the accountant-General. When such a Government servant is confirmed in a gazetted post his service book should be transferred for custody to the Accountant-General, West Bengal after making an entry about such confirmation.

Compiler's Note : The work relating to maintenance of service book in respect of erstwhile gazetted Govt. servants has since been transferred from the AGWB to Deptts. concerned. As such, service book of all Govt. employees (irrespective of erstwhile gazetted and non-gazetted servants) are now maintained in the same process and manner by Head of Office/ Deptt.

Compiler's Note : * W.e.f. 1.11.83, the power to sanction pension etc. has been delegated to the Head of Office. As such, at present, the head of office as defined in rule 5(16A) of WBSR, Pt.
